

The Constitution and the Election:

A Forum on Christians and Voting

Why do the media reinforce “liberal” and “conservative” as our only political categories?

Can or should Christians vote? How should we engage the system?

How does the U.S. constitutional system and electoral process compare to other countries?

Come discuss our constitutional system of government and this year’s election with a panel of Malone professors.

Brehme Conference Center
Tuesday, September 16, 7:00 pm