Community Agreement

The faculty and staff of Malone are dedicated to the person of Jesus Christ and to the belief that the principles and practices set forth in the Holy Scriptures will enhance and be evident in the life of every person who seriously embraces the Christian philosophy.

Malone is committed to the total development of each student and seeks to provide a nurturing environment for spiritual, academic, and social growth. Enrollment privileges are extended to any person who academically qualifies and is willing to accept the University's lifestyle expectations regardless of race, creed, color, or denominational preference.

In order for any community to function effectively, it is necessary for the community to establish behavior expectations that govern its members. Therefore, in addition to the biblical principles that provide essential guidelines for effective living, Malone discourages the use of (and prohibits the unlawful use of) tobacco and alcoholic beverages, including non-alcoholic beer. The University prohibits the possession, use, distribution, purchase or sale (or solicitation of purchase or sale) of illegal or unauthorized drugs, controlled substances, drug-related paraphernalia or alcohol, or being under the influence of any such substance while on University property, while conducting University business, while engaging in University-related activities, or while operating or riding in University-supplied vehicles, or any other violation of the University Substance Use and Abuse Policy for Employees and Students or any related rules or regulations. Students are required to abstain from sexual misconduct, from any violent behavior or threats of violence (to self or others), and from gambling, profanity, vulgar behavior, unlawful harassment, or any other improper conduct.

The University acknowledges that every adult has the right and responsibility to establish his or her personal lifestyle, but that lifestyle cannot conflict with the standards established by the Malone community.

Campus lifestyle expectations are not an attempt to legislate Christianity and are not to be considered moral absolutes, but it is the conviction of the University that they are valid expressions of a Christian community.

Chapel is an integral part of the Malone experience, and every student is required to attend chapel services. Each student is encouraged to also become involved in the services of one or more of the local churches.

Your signature on this agreement is an affirmation that you understand and accept the lifestyle expectations as stated in the student handbook, The Pendle Hill, and this Community Agreement, and that you agree to comply with them while you are a member of this community. If you have difficulty accepting campus regulations or cannot exert a positive influence on behalf of the University, you are encouraged not to enroll as a student.

Agreement

I have read and understand the above Community Agreement outlining behavioral lifestyle expectations and upon my admittance to Malone, I agree to comply with them. I shall respect Malone's standards while enrolled as a student at the University. I agree that these standards involve positive citizenship, personal integrity, regard for the rights of others, and respect for the duly constituted leadership of Malone.

Disclaimer

The applicant understands and agrees that withholding any information requested on this application, or giving false or incomplete information on or in connection with this application, may disqualify the applicant from admission to Malone University, or revoke the applicant's previous admission to the University, or subject the applicant to dismissal from the University.
